

Myrtle Avenue Brooklyn Partnership presents

BLACK ARTSTORY February 2014

on Myrtle Avenue in Fort Greene and Clinton Hill

Native Sons & Daughters:

Locals, (Im)migrants, Expats, and Prodigals

Artwalk

Curator Daonne Huff brings together works that explore stories of migration, and of shaping identity. While the emphasis is on the African American experience, artists from diverse backgrounds contributed to exhibitions at 10 locations along Myrtle Avenue. Stop by these locations on Saturday, February 1st for the opportunity to view the works and meet some of the artists, then join us at the opening reception at The Emerson (561 Myrtle) at 8pm.

Exhibition locations and participating artists:

- 1. Gnarly Vines, 350 Myrtle Ave
TryHarderNYC artists Steven Mosley & Jose Baez
- 2. Brooklyn Sweet Spot, 366 Myrtle Avenue
Sophia Dawson, Ify Chiejina
- 3. DC Optics, 390 Myrtle Ave
Local Heroes: Works by youth from local schools
- 4. Joseph Tyler Salon, 458 Myrtle Avenue (window)
Ibou Ndoye
- 5. Miracle's, 473A Myrtle Avenue (window)
Ibou Ndoye
- 6. Corkscrew, 489 Myrtle Avenue
Justin Baldwin, Jules Joseph
- 7. Dee and Rickys, 503 Myrtle Avenue
Laolu Senbanjo, Jabari Jefferson, Ify Chiejina, Patrick Dougher, Chanel Kennebrew
- 8. Pillow Cafe, 505 Myrtle Avenue
Teri Sanders
- 9. The Emerson, 561 Myrtle Avenue
Lissa Rivera, Angel Garcia, Ellie Balk, Chanel Kennebrew, Mirland Terlonge, Amber Doe
- 10. Soketah, 563 Myrtle Avenue (window)
Ibou Ndoye

@MyrtleAveBklyn
#BlackArtstory

For a full calendar and info about participating artists, visit www.myrtleavenue.org